PHTLS Vice Chair
Email: chapmgre1@gmail.com

Greg Chapman is the Director for the Center for Prehospital Medicine at Carolinas Medical Center in Charlotte North Carolina. He has been involved in EMS since 1975, working as a full time educator for more than 20 years. As a long-time member of NAEMT's PHTLS Committee, Chapman has been involved in developing the last four editions of PHTLS.

In addition to serving as a regular lecturer at national and international conferences on five continents, Chapman has published in many textbooks and has written numerous journal articles.

Chapman believes you can't teach what you don't do, and has been an active paramedic in both rural and urban EMS systems. An avid skier and cyclist, Chapman works part time in the winter as a professional ski patroller and search and rescue specialist.
