4. I will conduct myself in a spirit of collegiality and respect for the collective decisions of the Board and subordinate my personal interests to the best interests of the Association.
5. I will not abuse my position by influencing or suggesting to any individual or group that I am entitled to or expect any special treatment.
6. I will not misuse Association property or resources and will at all times keep the Association's property secure and not allow any person not authorized by the Board of Directors to have or use such property.

10. I will report to the President, on a confidential basis, any current or pending felony indictment in which I am named.

Conflict of Interest

1. I will declare any conflict of interest, be it real, potential, or apparent, with regard to any matter being considered by the Board.
 - a. Conflicts of interest can include both financial and material interests. In addition to an actual conflict of interest, there can also be apparent or potential conflict of interest. An apparent conflict of interest occurs when the answer to the following question is "yes":

Would a reasonably informed person perceive that the performance of the director's duties and responsibilities could be influenced by their financial or material interest?

- b. I understand that the following situations are considered by the Association to be examples of, but are not limited to, conflicts of interest:
 - director's private affairs or business interests are in conflict with his/her NAEMT duties and responsibilities or result in a perception that a conflict exists;
 - being a member of the Board or staff of another organization which might have material interests that conflict with the interests of the Association and, dealing with matters on one Board which might materially affect the other Board;
 - director personally contracts with NAEMT or is a director of another organization which is contracting with NAEMT;
 - director uses information gained through his/her position with NAEMT about an opportunity for profit which may be valuable personally or to another organization of which he/she is associated, or to other persons known to the director;
 - director, in any circumstance as related to NAEMT, puts his/her personal interests or that of a particular constituency ahead of the best interests of the organization.
 - c. Full disclosure in itself does not remove a conflict of interest. On disclosure of a conflict, I understand that the President or presiding officer has the right to ask a board member to recuse him/herself from voting, from participating in discussion, or from being present in the meeting.
2. I will not persuade or attempt to persuade any employee of the Association to leave the employ of the Association or to become employed by any person or entity other than the Association. Furthermore, I will not persuade or attempt to persuade any member, exhibitor, advertiser, sponsor, subscriber, supplier, contractor, or any other person or entity with an actual or potential relationship to or with the association to terminate, curtail, or not enter into its relationship to or with the association, or to in any way reduce the monetary or other benefits to the association of such relationship.
3. I will not engage in any outside business, professional or other activities that would directly or indirectly materially, adversely affect the Association.

Information

I understand that my obligations of confidentiality with respect to information acquired during my tenure on the Board of Directors shall continue.

Gifts and Hospitality

I will not solicit or accept gifts, gratuities, free trips, honoraria, personal property, or any other item of value from any person or entity as a direct or indirect inducement to provide special treatment to such donor with respect to matters pertaining to the association.
