What's in it for you?

- ✓ Behavioral health support from the comfort of a first responder's home. No stigma, completely confidential
- ✓ 24/7 access to board-certified doctors from anywhere
- ✓ Visits for first responder and family are always $0
- ✓ Save thousands every year on healthcare expenses

Why Are First Responders Embracing Behavioral Health?

The job can be draining, now they aren't in it alone

- ✓ Establish an ongoing relationship with a licensed therapist through video or phone sessions
- ✓ Get support for anxiety, depression, stress/PTSD, panic disorder, grief, family & marriage issues, and more
- ✓ Prescriptions are sent to your local pharmacy, when medically necessary
- ✓ Confidential sessions without leaving home

Why Are First Responders Embracing Telemedicine?

Officers Save Time & Money

Telemedicine gives members 24/7 access to board-certified physicians by phone or video who can diagnose illnesses, recommend treatment, and even call a prescription to a local pharmacy when medically necessary. By using telemedicine instead of going to an urgent care clinic or ER, members cut unnecessary out-of-pocket costs and time wasted in crowded waiting rooms.

Health Benefits

Telemedicine

Quality Care When and Where It's Needed. Anytime. Anywhere.

73% of Americans have trouble receiving timely medical care without having to visit the emergency room. Help your members save time and money with 24/7 access to a doctor by phone or online video consult—anytime, anywhere in the U.S. with no consult fee. Doctors offer a diagnosis, treatment options and prescription if necessary. By using Telemedicine instead of going to an urgent care clinic or ER, employees cut unnecessary out-of-pocket costs and time wasted in crowded waiting rooms.
